InterDrone Launches “Drones at Dawn” Podcast - Amplifying the Voices Who are Making a Difference in the UAM/AAM Industry

InterDrone is pleased to announce that Dawn Zoldi, CEO of P3 Tech Consulting will be hosting their new weekly podcast called “Drones at Dawn.”

Mike Pehel, Marketing Director and InterDrone Chairman explains, “The idea is to grab your coffee and kick off your week each Monday morning, 10 am ET, with a 30 minute live discussion on emerging unmanned aircraft systems (UAS)/advanced air mobility (AAM) platforms, use cases, and issues with Dawn and her all-star guests. The line-up includes industry experts who will help you elevate your understanding of the latest developments impacting the industry and provide you with practical tips, lessons learned and best practices to elevate your business.”

Zoldi is an internationally acclaimed UAS/AAM expert who brings a combined 28 years of federal expertise and service to the United States Air Force to bear on the issues facing the industry. She spent

25 years as a military attorney and an additional three as a federal civilian business matters attorney and character and leadership faculty expert at the U.S. Air Force Academy. Now, she focuses on her company full time, connecting people and companies who are passionate about advanced tech platforms with the policies, programs, plans and information they need to succeed. Leslie Wolf, Conference Director explains, “We met Dawn when she received the Women and Drones Woman to Watch in UAS (Leadership) Award at our event in 2019, and immediately recognized her talent. We signed her on as an adjunct conference planner to curate content for our 2020 event, which she helped us shape into a world-class online event. She is doing the same this year for our live event August 10-12 in Dallas, Texas.” Pehel adds, “We saw unprecedented levels of participation when we had Dawn on our first podcast of the year. We’re excited to have her on board with this new podcast to help us lift the industry to even higher levels.”

Zoldi states, “I’m honored to have the opportunity to help amplify diverse voices in this space. I’ll be dedicating each month to a specific theme, including Movers & Shakers, Defense, S&T, Global Regulations, Education & Training, AAM, Diversity/Equity/Inclusion, Safety and Security and more.” February’s theme is “Movers and Shakers.”

Join us for the inaugural Drones at Dawn podcast on February 1, 2021, 10 am ET (click here to tune in) with Dawn and her guest, Miriam McNabb, CEO, SBS Drone Tech: JobForDrones (JobForDrones.com), DRONELIFE (DRONELIFE.com), DroneRacing Life (DroneRacingLife.com) and DroneFlyers (Droneflyers.com). McNabb is a veteran of the high tech industry with over 25 years as a sales and marketing professional in emerging technologies including Cloud storage, big data, and drones. As Editor-in-Chief of DRONELIFE.com, Miriam has published more than 3,000 articles on the commercial drone industry, providing a balanced view of drone regulation, new products, and industry applications, and has been a speaker at countless drone events around the world. Dawn and Miriam will provide an industry lookback at 2020, a forecast of 2021 while providing actionable information to help your UAS/AAM business fly.

We hope to ‘see’ you all on Monday morning! (Watch here: <https://launchpad.aero/podcasts/>)
