CARE IN DEVELOPMENT DELIVERED CONSUMER PREFERRED FLATBREADS AND PIZZA CRUSTS

Two years in development — Included European tours where our R&D team was able to experience the best crusts to understand the recipe and baking methods of Artisan Pizza Crust.

» THE RESULT

- made with a traditional artisan process that mimics the gentle touch of the human hand
- dough is bulk fermented to develop texture and flavor of the crust for a noticeable difference on first bite.
- use of sourdough—to enhance the flavor and texture
- baked in patented high heat oven technology to mimic the artisan stone ovens that produce some of the best pizza crusts in the world
